

Number Transfers

Sunday 23rd March 2025
OAKLEY 20

Please be aware that the transfer includes transferring the size of hoodie that was ordered at race entry. Bedford Harriers are unable to offer any other size hoodie. Bedford Harriers will record the entry data provided for administrative purposes only. In all cases, any financial consideration is the sole concern of the original and replacement runners.

To make an Online Entry Transfer (available till 6am Friday 21/3/25): the original runner will need:

- 1 - Your email address
- 2 - Unique Reference Number from your entry confirmation email. (If you've deleted the email, use the forgot reference number button)
- 3 - The replacement runner's email address.

✓ TRANSFER

Once replacement runner receives email, replacement runner to log in and update personal details.

To make an On-the-Day Entry Number Transfer (available at Race HQ until 9am Sunday, 23/3/25) the replacement runner must follow the procedure below:

1 - Replacement runner collects the race number for the original entrant, (name & first line of the address for the original runner is required to collect race number).

2 - Replacement runner completes a Number Transfer Form (also available on race day).

3 - Replacement runner tenders both completed Number Transfer Form and race number to the Number Transfer Desk at Race HQ.

4 - Replacement runner's details are registered against the race number and original entrant details are removed from the race data.

No dialogue will be entered into if these conditions are not met. On finishing the race, the runner receives the size hoodie originally ordered by the original runner at registration.

Any runners found to be wearing an 'illegal' number will be disqualified and their details reported to the appropriate governing bodies. This may result in disqualification from future events.
